REGISTRY OF BOND VOTERS.—The registry of the voters upon the municipal water bond issue was held yesterday at the city hall, and a number of citizens registered.

ILLUSTRATED LECTURE.—Prof. W. H. Dudley will give an illustrated lecture called "Color and Nature," at the high school tonight, the proceeds of which will go to the grammar school library fund. The lecture will begin at 8 o'clock.

DEATH OF PIONEER MEXICAN.—Yesterday occurred the death of Jesus Mendez, an old man who had come to Phoenix in the early sixties, and has been working steadily at various occupations until his death. He has been engaged principally in agricultural work and had many friends among the older settlers.

UNITED MODERNS.—The United Moderns will hold a social session in Fudget hall tonight. The first part of the evening will be spent in a basket social after which the floor will be cleared and dancing will be enjoyed the remainder of the evening. The usual jolly time is anticipated by the members and their guests.

THREE CHILDREN IN RUINA-WAY.—The three children of Giovanni Salsado were driving in a grocery wagon, delivering some groceries for a Mr. Valencia, when the horse became unmanageable and ran away. At Fourth street the horse shied and the wagon struck a tree, throwing the three children out. The oldest one, Al-gull, and his head badly cut, necessitating several stitches, and was unconscious for some length of time. Carlos, the younger one, was badly cut about the face, and the youngest, three years of age, was badly bruised about the face. Dr. Street left them all in a pretty good condition, and no serious results are anticipated.

PROBATE COURT.—Merritt Tuttle was brought before the probate court yesterday, charged with insanity. Tuttle is an old war veteran and has been acting strangely for the past few months. He has been in Phoenix during the winters for the past six years, and spends his summers at the Soldiers' Home at San Antonio. He has a house in which he resides, on Johnson street, and he imagines that his neighbors are keeping him from renting his property, and has threatened them, and made demonstrations on the subject that show his insanity. He gets a small pension that pays his expenses. It was determined that the man was dangerous to himself and the community and he said he would not go back to the Soldiers' home as long as he could stay away, but preferred to go to the asylum here.

DEATH OF MISS VESTAL.—Miss Marie Vestal died at the family residence, 330 East Van Buren street, at 11 o'clock last night. Miss Vestal came to Phoenix from Kansas City a year and a half ago, a sufferer from consumption. Like many others, her health underwent a marked improvement several months, but ever since last summer she had been growing steadily weaker. During the short period of her residence in Phoenix she had made a large circle of friends, to whom she endeared herself by her singular sweetness of disposition and her hopeful, vivacious and unselfish nature. The funeral will take place tomorrow at an hour yet to be fixed, from the residence. Miss Eudora Vestal, a sister of the dead girl, is stenographer in the office of the surveyor general.

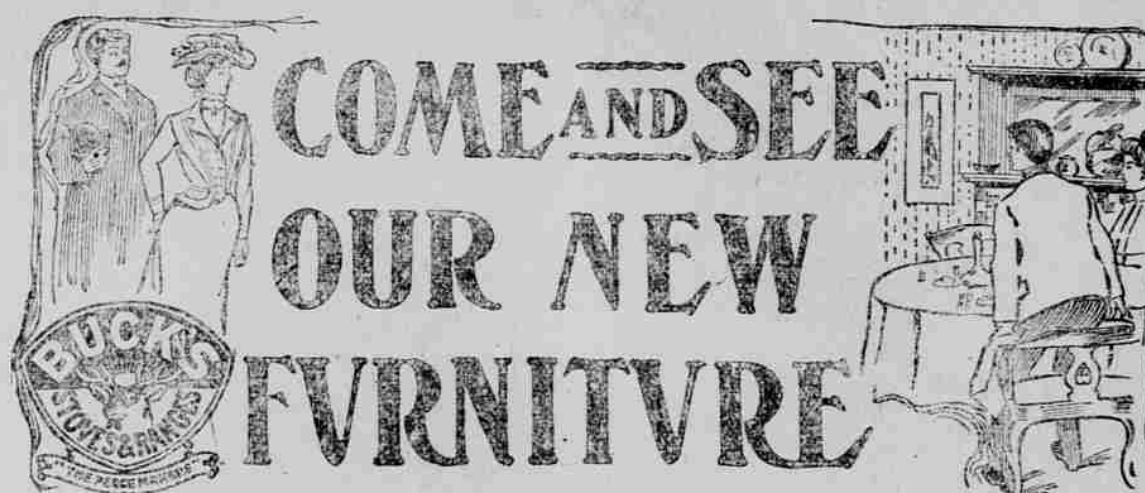

A man is the lord but not the master when he is married; he is neither when he has children.
